Program Announcements (PA'S)

SUPPLEMENTS TO PROMOTE REENTRY INTO BIOMEDICAL AND BEHAVIORAL RESEARCH CAREERS - ADDENDUM

Release Date: June 4 1998

PA NUMBER: PA-97-088

P.T.

National Institutes of Health

This notice is an addendum to the program announcement PA-97-088, which was published in the NIH Guide, Vol. 26, No. 26, August 8, 1997.

MECHANISM OF SUPPORT

Supplements may be made for up to three years. The limit of $40,000 for the combination of full-time salary and fringe benefits for the reentry candidate has been removed. The requested salary and fringe benefits for a reentry candidate must be in accordance with the salary structure of the grantee institution, consistent with the level of effort. Additional funds of up to $10,000 may be requested for supplies and travel. Equipment may not be purchased as part of this supplement without justification and specific prior approval of the NIH.

INQUIRIES

For general information about the reentry supplements, candidates and Principal Investigators should contact the program official of the appropriate awarding Institute or Center. Candidates who have not yet made contact with a Principal Investigator are encouraged to contact the program official whose institute or center is specific to the research interest. To discuss business aspects of the parent grant or the supplement, Principal investigators should contact their grants management official. Program officials and grants management contacts and the respective awarding institutes or centers are listed below.
